SERIOUS CHARGES WERE MADE IN LETTERS

HEINZE BANK IS CLOSED IN BUTTE

Copper King Is Forced to the Wall

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—A dispatch from Butte, Mont., says that the State Savings Bank of Butte has temporarily suspended.

This bank had, according to a recent statement of its depositors, $4,821,975.

RUN ON BANK.

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 17.—A special to the Record from Butte says that after having been open only a few months, the State Savings Bank closed its doors. A run had been precipitated because of rumors received over private wires that the firm of Otto Heinze & Company of New York, and a large German bank in Berlin had failed. These interests are closely identified with J. Augustus Heinze in his copper mining operations. Heinze is the largest stockholder and a director in the State Savings Bank which has deposits of about $4,000,000.

The following bulletin was posted:

"Because of unusual conditions and rumors that cannot be verified that may cause unusual demands of depositors and owing to the shortage of currency and inability to secure additional currency immediately to pay demands which may be made, the management has deemed it advisable in the interest of all depositors to suspend for the time being. The bank is solvent."

CROWD IS QUIET.

A large crowd is gathered in front of the bank, but, considering the circumstances and conditions, are quite unobtrusive, although there are occasional cries demanding revenge on Heinze and his institutions.

The State of Montana is a depositor to the extent of $75,000, but is amply secured.

Further than the notice, the bank officials said:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY W. H. L. HYNES.

TELLS HOW OLIVE SCULLY GOT VITRIOL SHE THREW

Witness at Murder Trial Relates How He Procured the Bottle of Poison.

"Standing room only," was to be had in Department Five of the Superior Court this morning, where Olive Scully is on trial for her life. District Attorneys Brown and Hynes were early in the courtroom, where they were joined by the defense. After polling the jury by Clerk Rudolph, the prosecution recalled Robert S. Harrison to the stand. Mr. Hynes asked Harrison a few questions as to the last details of the tragedy and passed the witness to the defense.

ALLEN QUESTIONS WITNESS.

John Allen is conducting the cross-examinations for Miss Scully, Crealey and Walsh sitting, one on either side of him and conferring together in low whispers. Allen reviewed much of the former testimony given by Harrison before the Grand Jury.

WAS NOT QUARRELSOME.

"Did Glover seem to be cross or quarrelsome during dinner?"

"No," said Harrison. "I can't say that he did."

"You said before the Grand Jury," continued Allen, "that you saw him go to the telephone and said to him, 'You wouldn't butt in here.'"

"Yes, she saw him go to the telephone and said to him, 'You wouldn't butt in here.'"

"Did she seem excited or irrational?"

"No, sir; not to me."

"That is all, Mr. Harrison."

The witness was then excused from service, it being shown that he could be secured at any time by communication with the Liberty Theater.

CUDDY IS CALLED.

"Colonel" J. B. Cuddy was then called to the witness stand.

"What is your name?" said Rudolph.

"Col. J. B. Cuddy," answered the witness.

"What is your business?" asked Brown.

"Printing and advertising commissioner."

"Your office?"

TIREY L. FORD AGAIN BROUGHT BEFORE JURY

Second Trial on Alleged Bribery Charge Begins in Judge Lawlor's Court.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Charged with the bribing of former Supervisor Jennings K. Phillips in connection with the granting of the overhead trolley franchise, Tirey L. Ford, general counsel of the United Railroad, was this morning placed on trial before Judge Lawlor in Department Eleven of the Superior Court.

The second trial of the former attorney general of the State of California was fully launched when both the defense and the prosecution called Juror Harry I. Berg, a cigar dealer of 2004 Bush street. The examination of John R. Jenkel was in progress when the morning adjournment was taken. He had been passed by the prosecution.

Two hundred and fifty talesmen were in attendance when court convened this morning. Of this number twelve were selected and sworn. Assistant District Attorney Hynes briefly stated the nature of the charge.

RELY ON CIRCUMSTANCES.

From questions asked the two jurors questioned, it is intimated the prosecution will rely on circumstantial evidence in this case, unlike the last Ford trial, in which they stated at the opening of the case that they would prove a complete chain of direct evidence. In this they failed completely. In two separate points, one the failure of former Supervisor Wilson to sustain their contention that he was bribed by Loneragan, and in the failure to place Rufel on the stand.

FRANCE SWEEP BY THE FLOODS

Rivers Rage in Torrents and Great Distress Results.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Dispatches from the center and south of France today all confirm the worst reports of destruction caused by the floods. The rivers Loire, Rhone and Seine and their tributaries are raging torrents, the water in some places being the highest ever recorded. In hundreds of cities and towns there is from two to ten feet of water in the streets.

GRINDING AWAY ON PROXIES

Slim Chance for Vote of the Illinois Central Directors.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—When the annual meeting of the Illinois Central stockholders reconvened today, it was evident that the chances for a vote on the directors today were small. The proxy committee which had worked for the greater part of the night, had gone on through the letters "A" and "B" and had gotten a little way into "C."

AGAINST SPRECKELS

People Protested Against Spreckels Taking Virtual Control of the District Attorney's Office---Hot Shot From Editor of Tribune.

W. E. DARGIE, ON TAKING THE WITNESS STAND THIS AFTERNOON, SAID: WANT TO ADD TO MY TESTIMONY OF THIS MORNING REGARDING THE VARIOUS LETTERS RECEIVED BY THE TRIBUNE. THESE LETTERS WHICH I REFERRED TO WERE DESTROYED. ONE OF THESE LETTERS CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT MR. RUDOLPH SPRECKELS AND HIS FATHER, MR. CLAUD SPRECKELS, HAD CALLED UPON MAYOR E. E. SCHMITZ AND ASKED TO HAVE HIM GRANT THEM A RAILROAD FRANCHISE IN SAN FRANCISCO AND THAT THIS REQUEST HAD BEEN DECLINED BY THE MAYOR.

"THIS MEETING TOOK PLACE BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF THE GRAFT PROSECUTION."

"ANOTHER LETTER CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT MR. COPE, PRESIDENT OF THE SAN FRANCISCO BAR ASSOCIATION, WAS ONLY SAVED FROM INDICTMENT THROUGH THE INFLUENCE OF RUDOLPH SPRECKELS."

"ANOTHER LETTER WHICH WE RECEIVED CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT PRESIDENT DUFFY OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS OF SAN FRANCISCO WAS ACTUALLY INDICTED BUT THAT THROUGH THE INFLUENCE OF RUDOLPH SPRECKELS THE INDICTMENT WAS NEVER RETURNED."

"ANOTHER LETTER WHICH I RECEIVED CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT SOME YEARS AGO RUDOLPH SPRECKELS HAD BROUGHT SUIT AGAINST HIS FATHER, CLAUD SPRECKELS, CHARGING HIM WITH HAVING ROBBED HIM OF LARGE SUMS OF MONEY AND THAT HIS FATHER HAD ACCUSED HIM OF EVEN MORE SERIOUS CHARGES."

"WE GOT ANOTHER LETTER WHICH INFORMED US THAT RUDOLPH SPRECKELS HOPED TO SECURE POSSESSION OF THE GAS COMPANY IN SAN FRANCISCO AND TO SELL THE SPRING VALLEY WATER COMPANY TO THE CITY OF SAN FRANCISCO TO ACQUIRE THE UNITED RAILROADS AND THEREBY INCREASE HIS WEALTH FROM FIFTEEN TO TWENTY MILLION DOLLARS."

William E. Dargie gave the following examination by plaintiff of its own evidence before the court commissioner today:

Mr. Wheeler. Q.—You believe that Mr. Spreckels was not sustained in everything he said, and checked in accounts?

A.—I believe that Mr. Spreckels was not sustained in everything he said, and checked in accounts.

GREATER EAST OAKLAND IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Washington Hall, at Sixth avenue and East Twelfth street was crowded Tuesday night with an enthusiastic gathering
of citizens of East Oakland who met to organize an improvement association
which would cover and look after the interests of the entire Seventh Ward.
The meeting decided that the name of the new organization was to be known as the Improvement Association of Greater East Oakland. The following were elected officers: D. D. Holmes, president; M. J.
O'Toole and James Meir, vice-presidents;
D. P. Adkinson, secretary.

Plans were formulated to facilitate the work of the present city administration
in improving the district. Resolutions were adopted commending the attitude of the mayor and of the different departments under him. A boom was launched for new street lights along East Twelfth street, which is the principal business
street of the ward, the plan being to extend the electric lights from the boulevard
along East Twelfth street to Thirteenth avenue.

COUNCILMAN SPEAKS.
Councilman George E. Aitken was present and addressed the meeting. He was of the opinion that the city had for the improvement of the ward and told the gathering that Mayor Mott was assisting him in every way possible. He stated that throughout every section of the ward
that hundreds of new residences were
being erected and that along the water front new manufacturing enterprises were springing up. He stated that he believed that if the improvement club of the district would work in harmony with the present city administration that great
results could be accomplished.
Before adjournment a committee was appointed consisting of President R. D.
Holmes, G. E. Aitken and G. S. Pierce, to invite the mayor to be present at a future meeting of the club and address
the members. An executive committee of seven directors, consisting of one
member from each of the twelve precincts
of the ward is to be appointed later by the club.

TAFT OPENS P. I. ASSEMBLY

Declares That United States
Does Not Intend to Sell Island.

MANILA, Oct. 17.—Secretary Taft
formally opened the Philippine assembly in the national theater at 11:15 yesterday morning in the presence of a large crowd.

In his opening address Taft said that
his views announced two years ago
regarding the independence of the Philippine people were unchanged. He did not believe that they would be fitted to govern themselves at least a generation, but he added that the matter was entirely in the hands of congress.

The secretary denied emphatically
that the United States had any intention of disposing of the islands, said he had absolute confidence in the Filipino people, and that he was disappointed at their inability to legislate conservatively and assured his belief that they felt their responsibility and acknowledged the necessity of supporting the American government.

Taft refrained from suggestions regarding specific legislation by the assembly, but recommended that attention be paid to the civil service.

GOEZ SPEAKS.
At the close of his address Taft formally called the assembly to order. A short prayer was then read by the only
native Catholic bishop in the island.
The assembly took a recess and upon
re-assembling chose as president Sergio Gomez, nationalist, who formerly was governor of the island of Cebu. All the assemblymen, including Senor Gomez,
whose election is to be contested, were formally sworn in. The oath included acknowledgment of sovereignty and allegiance to the American government.

The principal feature of the session
was an address by Gomez, who declared against bringing politics into legislative business and urged the delegates to
show their patriotism by forsaking party
affiliations and legislating for the benefit of the Filipino people.

RETURNS FROM TRIP TO SOUTHERN OREGON

John C. Hill, secretary of the Holcomb
Realty Company, with its main office at 305 San Pablo avenue, has just returned from a business trip of nearly two months, having been looking after extensive interests of the company which are located in and about the northern part of the State and southern Oregon.
Hill is more enthusiastic than ever
about the splendid present and wonderful future as to this eastern side of San Francisco Bay and he has heard such sentiments expressed from prominent people everywhere that he has traveled. In Hill's opinion, we are just entering upon
an era of expansion which gains force
every day and is shown, even though
one is absent from the city for a couple of months. Hill is in touch with great promoting interests which seek to direct
money and home-seekers in general toward the Golden West and he feels that the next few years will severely tax all
transportation lines across the continent.

Speaking in particular as regards his trip, he reports that the whole country in and about Klamath Falls is developing very fast. The U. S. government is spending about five million dollars on irrigation works, which will place under cultivation about 250,000 acres of very fine land, capable of producing a great variety of products. A large exhibit of which was in evidence at the Irrigation Congress held a short time ago at Sacramento, and quite a variety of the grains
and grasses can be seen in the window
of the Holcomb Realty Company at Oakland, having been shipped here by Hill.
He brings the information that Klamath county carried off a number of the large
prizes at the Irrigation Congress, viz.,
the registered Holstein bull, valued at $1000, the Perkins silver trophy, and numerous cash prizes, varying from $25
to $100.

The Southern Pacific Company is building a line into Klamath Falls which will be extended to Natom, Oregon, and which, when completed, will be the main line between Oakland and Portland. It is expected that the line will be completed and in full operation as far as Klamath Falls next year at this time. This will give the farmers a chance to ship their products to the large markets and will have a tendency to change the whole complexion of the country. The soil is very suitable for sugar beets and as soon as the railroad facilities are sufficient a warranted large sugar beet factory
will no doubt be established.

This will also be an ideal dairy country. The elevation is about 4000 feet
and anything that will grow anywhere
at that elevation can be grown there.
Lands are selling for from $5 to $50 an acre, depending on the location, and the opportunities for men who understand the tilling of the soil are very great. In fact,
there have been a number of cases where men have paid for their land four or five times the first year. Hill is very enthusiastic over the prospects and the Holcomb Realty Company has established an office in Klamath Falls, which is the best equipped and furnished real estate
office in southern Oregon. Hill says that the property purchased by E. H. Larrin man for a summer home on Pelican Bay,
Upper Klamath Lake, is an ideal location and is only a short distance from Klamath Falls. Fishing and hunting in this vicinity are the finest in the world.

Hill also recently took a trip to Crater
Lake, which is one of the seven wonderful centers of the United States. This lake is the center of an old volcano. The rim of the crater is about 8200 feet elevation. The lake is about six miles wide by seven miles long and the water is 2000 feet deep. Standing on the rim of the crater
one would think it quite possible to throw
a stone into the lake below, but in several attempts of this kind the stone utterly failed to reach the water. Hill had a rifle with him and he lifted the rifle
seemed to drop about 100 feet from the
further side of the lake and the ball
seemed to drop about 10 feet from the shore from which he fired, showing that the shore line was much farther out from the rim of the crater than it seemed.
The distance from the shore line of the water to the top of the rim is about 2000 feet. This lake and the surrounding territory has been made a national park
by the government and the scenery is certainly grand and inspiring.

If any of our readers are seeking information concerning this Klamath country they will find Hill ready and willing to impart such information as he possesses.

CLASH ARISES IN ASSEMBLY

Filipino Deputies Wrangle—Taft
Still Silent as to His Policy.

MANILA, Oct. 17.—Secretary Taft was entertained at luncheon today by Major General Leonard Wood, commander of the military division of the Philippines.
In the afternoon he attended a reception
at the Jesuit College and this evening he will be present at a reception to be given
in his honor by the officers of the army and navy.

Mr. Taft is not inclined to discuss Philippine issues until after the official banquet, which is to be given him on Monday night, when he will outline the future policy of the government towards the islands. The general impression caused among the Filipinos by the secretary's speech at the opening of the assembly yesterday is excellent but the American papers here call for a prompt
announcement of the government's policy towards the islands. They declare that Mr. Taft evades any positive statements

on the subject, and allege that his speech
was a rebuff of the addresses which he made here two years ago and has since delivered in the United States.

A clash occurred in the assembly today between the president, Sergio Osmena, Nationalist, and Donador Gomez, who seconded the president's nomination yesterday in an eloquent speech,
and who, during the afternoon session
yesterday delivered an address declaring against bringing politics into executive
business, and asking the delegates to
show their patriotism by forsaking party
affiliations and legislating for the benefit of the Filipino people. Gomez, whose election is to be contested, but who was formally sworn with the other assembly-
men yesterday, made an appeal to the delegates to disregard politics but the president stopped Gomez' speech and announced that he would use his authority
as president of the assembly to have it
stricken from the records.

The delegates were surprised at this early beginning of the fight between the Nationalists, or Conservatives and the Radicals. The adherents of Gomez, who is leader of the famous Katipulan Revolutionary Society and ex-president of the Nationalist party, during the course of the day's proceedings in the assembly
defeated a plan to rush through that body
a series of special rules on parliamentary procedure, which had been drawn up by the president. The latter, however, managed to secure the temporary adoption of the rules and it is understood that he will not permit them to be changed.

Petitions against confirmation of the election of seventeen delegates, including Gomez, Adriatico and Lerma, all of whom are all alleged to be unfit to take part in legislation for the islands, were presented today.

SCHWAB MAY CLOSE WORKS

Arrives and Says He Has Lost
Heavily Through Union Plant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Charles
M. Schwab, multimillionaire and former president of the United States
steel corporation, who arrived here by the overland limited at 10 o'clock last night, said that the coming of the fleet
to Western waters would have considerable bearing on the future of the Union Iron Works.

"My visit here," said Schwab, "is solely on my usual business, but I shall determine whether to continue to operate the Union Iron Works or to close it down for good." He denied that a sale of the plant was mooted to the Government. When asked if the statement that his visit here was at the instigation of the Government for the purpose of caring for the fleet on its arrival, Schwab said it was a matter on which he was not at liberty to speak. Pressed for a confirmation or denial of the report, Schwab answered
that he would not deny it.

"I have lost money continually in operating the Union Iron Works," said

Schwab, "during the three years I have owned it. On our last contract
for the three warships we lost $2,700,000.
We have been bothered here by
scarcity of labor and industrial troubles. I shall go over the situation carefully, and if I decide to keep the works open we shall require a considerable addition to the plant. The plant at Mare Island is insufficient for the maintenance of the fleet. It could not possibly come with the necessities."
Schwab said that a fleet on the Pacific Coast was a necessity. He thinks the West coast will require as much protection as the Eastern shores.
"The present financial situation is merely the reaction of having gone too
fast," said Schwab when asked for an opinion on existing conditions in the money market.

COURT RULES ON QUESTIONS

Passes on Matters Connected
With Taking of Mr. Dargie's Desposition.

After overruling a demand that files of THE TRIBUNE containing all articles written by Louis Whitcomb be produced, other questions of a minor character were passed upon late yesterday afternoon by Judge Ogden in the Superior Court in the suit for damages brought by Rudolph Spreckels against THE TRIBUNE.

Attorney Wheeler for Mr. Spreckels suggested that as there had been many questions asked and refused answer, it would be a good idea to take the matter up at once. The court reporter was instructed to read his notes of the morning's testimony.

The question regarding the author of an article which purported to be a statement from Patrick Calhoun, was the next bore of contention. Mr. Dargie had stated in the morning that the article was written by H. A. Herrick, news editor of THE TRIBUNE.

Wheeler asked Mr. Dargie what Mr. Herrick had reported to him regarding the interview with Calhoun, and Chapman conferred with the judge, stating that it was the best testimony given by the witness.

Referring to the policy of THE TRIBUNE and the method employed of holding a conference with the heads of the different departments each day to determine the best policy to be pursued, Wheeler asked that the evidence on this subject be read.

As to what J. E. Dargie, the managing editor of THE TRIBUNE, had said to him regarding the publication of the Calhoun interview, Mr. Dargie was directed to tell the court what he had said after a long series of arguments.

"When did you first determine that the graft was a fact?" was the next question asked by the reporter. Judge Ogden stated that the question should be answered. Objections on each side of a minor nature were overruled.

The objection to the question as to whether or not a news article might be so written as to be favorable or unfavorable was sustained.

OVERRULED BY COURT.

Judge Ogden overruled the objection to the question as to whether or not it had ever been intended "a conference of the heads of the departments of THE TRIBUNE" to be held. If the graft prosecution was on, this had been objected to by Chapman.

The statement by Mr. Dargie that the policy of the paper had been that the District Attorney's office, and the courts should not be taken possession of by any influence, had brought forth in the morning the question as to whether or not the influence referred to was Spreckels. Judge Ogden held that this question need not be answered.

At this point Wheeler stated that by certain questions regarding the alleged taking possession of the District Attorney's office by Spreckels for private revenge, they hoped to show that animosity against Spreckels existed. Chapman discussed the matter for a few minutes, stating that THE TRIBUNE hoped to see all the grafters punished, including Calhoun if he was guilty.

RHEUMATIC FOLKS!

Are You Sure Your Kidneys Are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys, and then all danger from uric acid is ended. Here is an Oakland testimony to prove it.

Mrs. C. Anderson, living at 1161 E. 28th St., East Oakland, Cal., says: "A remedy containing such great merits as Doan's Kidney Pills should be known by everyone suffering from kidney trouble. For years I suffered with severe pains in my back. I also had rheumatism and knew this to be due to my kidneys failing to eliminate the uric poison from my system. The trouble also existed in my kidneys as the kidney secretions were painful in passage and much too frequent. I had a puffiness beneath my eyes and this showed that my kidneys were not performing their functions properly. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and, concluding to give them a trial, procured a box. I took them carefully, as directed and was cured. I am perfectly willing to have my name used as one who can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as I feel that I cannot speak too highly of them."

WHITE STEAMERS ARRIVE

New Models of Popular Car
Make Their Appearance on Streets of This City.

Automobilists on this side of the bay are enjoying unusual interest in the new models of White Steamers which made their first appearance on the streets of Oakland a couple of days ago. The 1908 cars on exhibition at the home of The White Company, 533 Seventeenth street, are attracting a good deal of attention and the garage has been crowded with motorists since their arrival.

The 24-horse power passenger car for next year is known as the model "12" and the 16-horse power car as the model "10." The big car is finished with a special of space which characterizes the White line. The wheel base has been increased this year and with consequent increase in the comfort of passengers, the body has been lengthened merely to increase the seating capacity. This brings the rear seat 18 inches further forward with respect to the rear axle and gives the easiest possible riding position.

To further increase the easy riding qualities of the car, the length of the rear spring has been increased from 48 in. to 51 in. The engine has been lowered 4 in. and while this lowers the center of gravity to that extent this is not very important. The far more desirable feature is that the driving shaft has been brought to an almost horizontal position, thus greatly decreasing the work of the universal joints. There is a very noticeable improvement in brakes. White's 1908 cars have been admirably equipped in that respect, but more leverage has been given this year and this insures a quicker action and more powerful set of brakes than ever. The new system of drive and water pump introduced last year has, of course, been retained, as this system has proved its popularity.

In the big cars a practically uniform steam pressure is maintained under all conditions. This is also true of the smaller car. The flow motor by which this regulation is secured has been regraded and improved, and its action is really wonderful. That simple device should be seen in operation to be appreciated. All of the cars are equipped with adjustable foot rests of an unusually efficient pattern, which adds much to the comfort of the occupants of the rear seat.

It has always been the aim of the White Company as far as possible to standardize all parts and make them interchangeable as far as possible, and the improvements on the new cars are to a very considerable extent such as can be readily adapted to former models so as to give an old customer who desires to re-equip his car the benefit of all the late improvements.

NECESSITY OF A VARIED DIET.

A matter of no little importance in maintaining a good healthy appetite is variety of diet. Appetites soon flag if there is a monotonous sameness in our daily food. An unusual delicacy will add to the enjoyment of the whole meal.

Of course bread is a staple food. No meal is complete without bread or some other wheat food. We may think we never tire of bread, but try some radical change and see how welcome it is. Try National Biscuit Company's Graham Crackers. The unbroken wheat of which they are made is not only delicious but stimulates the appetite and the digestion. The flavor of the National Biscuit Company's Graham Crackers is entirely different from the old coarse kind originally made by Dr. Graham. The same progress which experience, skill and study have induced in all the products of this Company has made the Graham Crackers not only a health food but a delightful delicacy.

For the indoor worker—the office man, the inactive, nothing makes a better lunch than Graham Crackers and milk. Light, but sustaining without heatiness or sleepiness so often following a hearty lunch of rich foods.

Keep Graham Crackers on the table as well as bread, and the staff of life can be eaten in either form that particularly appeals to the taste. National Biscuit Company's Graham Crackers come in moisture and dust-proof packages, keeping in all their delightful flavor, crispness and freshness.

Condition of the Navy Yards.

A new bugaboo has been raised at Washington against the proposed cruise of the battleship fleet to the Pacific, namely, that the navy yards on this coast are not fully manned and that skilled mechanics are so scarce that it will be difficult and it may be impossible to get them. The question is being raised evidently in order to bring the matter of the proposed cruise up for debate in Congress and thus furnish an opportunity to put obstacles in the way of the plans of the President and the Navy Department being carried out. If that is the object of the report of a shortage of skilled labor at the Pacific station, it is doomed to fail. The country generally understands that the purpose of the President and the Navy Department in ordering the cruise is to increase the efficiency of this arm of national defense, and their plans have received the approval of the most competent naval experts.

If the Pacific stations are now shorthanded the department will doubtless have no difficulty in meeting the emergency. The distance overland is not so great but what skilled workers can be readily transferred from the Eastern to the Western navy yards to strengthen the working force of the latter.

If there is anything in any of the Pacific navy yards really deficient in either equipment or in the working forces employed, it will be no harm to thoroughly exploit it when Congress meets and remedy it as quickly as possible. Congress has, as a matter of fact, been altogether too parsimonious toward the Western navy yards. It has, in fact, been too busy in the past taking care of the navy yards on the Eastern seaboard. If the movement of the fleet to this coast is exposing its past neglect of the naval interests here it will probably be the means of spurring it into activity and influencing it to make more liberal provisions for the maintenance of the yards and their proper equipment. It has been in past years almost impossible to get such appropriations from Congress to keep the navy yards, particularly that at Mare Island, in a proper state of efficiency. Hereafter it is evident that a more liberal policy will have to be adopted, for in six months the fleet will be here and will have to draw on the resources of the navy yards on this coast to keep in repairs. Whatever may be the true situation at Mare Island and Bremerton, it is now clearly evident that the working force will hereafter have to be raised and kept up to the highest standard of efficiency permanently, so that they will be ready to meet any emergency arising and respond to any call made upon them.

Status of the Union Iron Works.

Since the Union Iron Works passed into the hands of a trust its course has not been running smoothly. Its fortunes have not been as carefully fostered as they were formerly. It has been required to play second fiddle to the Eastern concerns in the trust. It has ceased to bid for the construction of new war vessels authorized by Congress, which in the prime of the works was one of its specialties. The war vessels that have been turned out by the works in the past have uniformly distinguished themselves and added materially to the fame of the establishment.

Charles M. Schwab and H. S. Snyder, the president and vice president, respectively, of the Bethlehem Steel Works, are here now to inspect the plant of the Union Iron Works. In a published interview Schwab is represented as saying that the purpose of the inspection is to determine whether the works shall be modernized by the installation of new equipment or be closed down. As the works is employing a force of about five thousand skilled mechanics, most of whom have built homes for themselves in the neighborhood of the works and on this side of the bay, the closing of the establishment, if Schwab and Snyder decide so to do, will have a very serious aspect to them without considering the damaging effect such a course will have on the interests of the communities directly concerned.

It has been rumored for a long time past, however, that the government has been considering the question of purchasing the plant and also the docks at Hunter's Point. While Schwab says that his visit here is not associated with such a project, the sale of the Union Iron Works and the Hunter's Point docks to the government would probably be a good thing all around. The acquisition of these two properties would increase the facilities of the government for the handling of its war ships immensely.

Schwab regards the coming of the battleship and cruiser fleets to the Pacific Coast as a good thing not only for the coast itself, but for the country at large. In that connection the chances are that he has come here to inspect the Union Iron Works now for the purpose of determining how it can be put quickly into the highest state of efficiency to handle a share of the business which the fleet is sure to bring to it in the event the government does not take it off the hands of the trust, and that the talk about closing the establishment up is a mere blind to conceal the real purpose of the visit.

David Tisch was elected to that important position which from his past experience he is ably qualified to fill and the success is getting along as well as could be expected as rendered by Fountain Lodge. A good attendance made the meeting interesting and, as usual, the officers were complimented on their work. Major Frank Baker, that enthusiastic member of the lodge, who surprised when the N. G. in behalf of members of the lodge presented him with an elegant gold ring (suitably engraved) as a souvenir and token of their esteem and friendship as a representative of the good brothers of Australia and wishing them God speed in the good work they are doing in that far distant land. # Riding Astride Is Condemned By Princess Royal of England

100

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Through the efforts of her sweetheart Clara Wittig, a pretty colored woman, 19 years old, who had away from her home in Twenty-second street, above Columbus avenue, to become an actress was brought back to this city from Norfolk, Va., yesterday morning, and was sent to a reformatory by Magistrate.

She is to remain in the reformatory not more than a year, and just as soon as she is discharged her sweetheart will marry her. His identity was not fully disclosed. His name is Roberts, and he lives in Norfolk.

She is a member of the chorus of a theatrical company there.

After learning that she was on a runaway, the young man feared that some of her companions in the company might lead her into mischief.

She met him while he was at the waterfronts and then induced her to consent to come back to this city with a police matron of Norfolk, whom he employed to accompany her.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17.—Arrested while calling upon his sweetheart, Christopher Morris, 21 years old, of Spring Garden street, above Twelfth, was arraigned before Magistrate Beaton yesterday morning upon a charge of larceny.

Morris' desire to see his sweetheart led to his arrest. The young woman lives in Reading, and Detectives Pinkerton and Selfs, who had been searching for Morris, watched her house. Morris had arranged to take the girl to a theater Monday night, and when he called at her home the detectives nabbed him. When they were parted the girl almost collapsed.

The charge of larceny was made against Morris by a woman, 22 years old, who said she was Morris' former woman.

Brennan testified that he gave Morris $17 a week ago to pay some bills and he retained the money.

Morris was held in $500 bail.

SCHOOLS WILL HAVE VACATION

Year of Instruction to be One Week Shorter Than Customary.

At a meeting of the Board of Education held Tuesday evening it was decided that the schools be closed for one week's vacation, commencing October 21. This week of vacation in the way of the school calendar this year is to follow. It will simply make the work for the school year forty-one weeks instead of forty-two.

In a few days an amended course in technical drawing will be introduced into the schools. Eight grade B teachers will confine the work in technical drawing to the work as outlined in this new course for the first grade. No other work in technical drawing will be required for graduation.

This change is recommended owing to the fact that in the city of San Francisco the work in this branch to the new State text book course has been given to this subject, and it is deemed advisable by the superintendent of schools and the principals.

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS.
On the recommendation of the Committee on Schoolhouses and Sites it was decided that additional wiring for electricity be placed in the Prescott school building at a cost of approximately $200 more than the original contract.

That the Piedmont Paving Company be awarded a private contract from the board for the curbing with standard granite curbing for the frontage of the Board of Education property on Millbury street at the rate of $1.20 per running foot.

On the recommendation of Sutton & Weeks, architects, the Watson Roofing Company was allowed $100 for additional work made necessary by the change in the plans and specifications of the Washington school building. This is divided into $100 for changes in ventilators, skylights and fresh air ducts of the Washington school, and $100 for the two vent stacks on the north and south ends of the building.

TO LINE FLUE.
The same architect is recommended that J. J. Walker be allowed $175 to line the smoke flue of the Washington school with fire brick or edge from the ground up to the level of the first floor ceiling, and this was allowed.

The Judson Manufacturing Company will put in the necessary channels (beings four in number) on the north and south ends of the front portions of the building, to receive the floor slabs; also the necessary T beams around the two fresh air ducts near the front of the building; they to make no charge for the cutting of the bricks or concrete, for the sum of $115.

Sutton & Weeks recommended that the W. I. Griffin be the deans and transoms of the Lincoln school building, be uniting and on account of this omission, Paulson Griffith & Co. will all be the Board of Education a sum of $100.

Sutton & Weeks, the architects of the Lincoln school, will be requested to substitute a beam of the red bronze for the iron work of this building, and an estimate of the cost of same, this estimate to be submitted to the Board of Education for consideration at the next meeting.

By oversight certain steel work was omitted from the contract of the Washington school. The sum of $225 will be expended under the direction of the architect to provide the needed steel work.

SOCIETY: GOSSIP ABOUT SMART SET

Miss Annette Hall and Miss Olive Hume. Mrs. Cora Jones, the president of the Oakland Club, was toastmistress and her introductions were most happily expressed. Some of the responses were exceedingly interesting. Mrs. Hume, in responding to the toast, "The Ultimate Object," said the ideal club should be in all ways what the ideal woman should be, and that the ultimate object of clubs should be to develop in the individual members the graces that make for the attaining of the ideal.

Mrs. Bunnell, founder of the Oakland Club, was another of the interesting speakers, as were Mrs. J. H. Wood, responding to "Culture and Athletics," Mrs. Wacsworth, in talking on "Music," and Madame Neustadt, who spoke on the contrast between the club life in Great Britain and that in America. The speaker took the opportunity to congratulate the members on their advantages and the club on its progress.

The musical program was arranged by Mrs. E. I. Bartholomew and was made up of a group of songs given by Mrs. Mabel Walker Murrell, whose full, rich contralto voice was most effective in "Love Me If I Live," by Foote, and "Jean," by Buhling. In response to an insistent encore Mrs. Murrell gave a charming "Spring Song." The singer was accompanied by Miss Nelle Murphy. Mrs. Murrell is to be one of the soloists at the Alice Davies concert on the twenty-fifth.

Many conspicuously lovely gowns were worn, the assemblage being in all ways one of the most distinctive and interesting of the season.

EVENING PARTY.
A delightful gathering of the friends of Charles Prescott on Wednesday evening came as a surprise to the young man, but a most enjoyable one.

The attractive home on Fifty-seventh street was daintily decorated in pink and green, and a most enjoyable evening of music and games was enjoyed. A dainty supper was one of the features of the evening.

Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Deal and Mrs. J. R. Tausch, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hunkley, Mrs. H. H. Hunkley, Mrs. Nellie L. Prescott, Mrs. G. V. Prescott, Mrs. H. F. Horgan, Mrs. A. Allen, Miss Lena Edwards, Miss Agnes Ewing, Miss P. L. Levi, Miss Lizzie Davis, Miss Terrie Walker, Miss Eunice Davis, Miss Freda Meyer, Miss Evelyn Davis, Miss Lavinia Pender, Miss Clara Thurston, Miss Minnie Thurston, Miss Rose Miller, Miss Deulah Allen of San Francisco, Miss Fannie E. Pender, Mrs. Charles Prescott, Miss Edna Prescott, P. J. Levi, H. F. Horgan, William Sprague, Charles Connolly, Thomas Rea, Fred Miller, Arthur S. Levi, Howard Allen, Walter E. Prescott, Milton Morgan, Charles J. Prescott, W. D. Prescott, E. G. Gable, W. H. Perrine, Ben Edwards and William J. Walker.

NEW CENTURY CLUB.
The delegates named by the New Century Club to serve at the meeting of the Alameda district of the California Federation are Mrs. Robert Watt, Mrs. R. N. Sloan, alternates Mrs. C. C. N. Walter, Mrs. A. D. Willis. The following new names were added to the membership roll: Mrs. Ella J. Barrows, Mrs. C. L. Brown, Mrs. Daniel L. Stevens, Mrs. L. N. Jones, Mrs. G. C. Bissett, Mrs. P. A. Verby Schmidt.

KEENE-BRESLAN.
The marriage of Miss Annie Clyde Keene and Hugh J. Breslan was one of the prettiest affairs of the week. The ceremony was performed on Tuesday evening by the Rev. Dr. Jayson of Grace Presbyterian Church at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Radican, 3127 King street.

Miss Grace Murphy of Alameda attended as bridesmaid, and the bridegroom's brother was best man. An orchestra in attendance played the Lovengrin wedding march and also furnished music during the serving of an elaborate supper. A large number of friends made up the wedding company, many of them coming from Sacramento and San Francisco.

At midnight Mr. and Mrs. Breslan departed in an automobile with showers of rice falling around them. After a short trip the young people will take up their residence in Fruitvale.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE.
The Rev. William F. Fife of North Berkeley was the recipient of a most delightful birthday surprise on Tuesday, October 15, in celebration of his birthday. Being an October affair, the decorations all suggested Halloween, many touches in reference to the "night of sprites" entering into the arrangements. Unique place cards and individual favors were given as souvenirs of the occasion. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph F. Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. Roy H. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hemmenover, Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, Miss Mabel Fowler and Arthur Allen.

THE ROUND TABLE.
Mrs. Duncan A. McDonald was hostess this afternoon at a most interesting meeting of the "Ladies of the Round Table," a circle of congenial folk who meet, read and discuss the things they read. At the meeting the club adopted a flower and a color. The blue forget-me-not was chosen in compliment to the founder of the club, Mrs. Julius Joseph, whose favorite flower it is. The colors chosen are blue and white.

The work of the club is at present on phases of Roman history. Papers are read at each meeting. "The Weavers," by Gilbert Parker, is also given a share of the club's time. Many other interesting things are included in the club's work for the winter.

GUESTS FROM NEW YORK.

lattice work of the leaves, with the red blossoms interwoven, outlining the table. A centerpiece of the red blossoms was most effective. The other dinner guests were San Francisco people. Miss Russell has been frequently entertained on board the different vessels of the visiting squadron.

YACHT PARTY.
The Seminoles Club had a most delightful yacht ride on Sunday, a large party of the club members and guests entering into the affair. The day was ideal, though the breeze was too light for fast sailing; in fact, so light that at some stages of the trip the more muscular members of the party had to get out and "jaghawk."

At El Campo the party disembarked, and the ladies prepared a most appetizing lunch which was greatly appreciated.

Music for the day was furnished by Henry Ellis and Carl Larson. The party included the Misses G. M. C. Spencer, Fanny Patterhoff, Esther Roll, Anna Roll, Elita Patterhoff, Irati Harria, Blanche Bonham, Martha Wolf, Gertrude Blanch, Madeline C. Harvey, Isabelle Boyd, Nellie McCurry, Edna Raleigh, Lily Tharsing, Maude Miller and Alice Miller. Among the men were William Heldebreich, Roy Burkhalter, Al Spencerian, Gene Van Antwerp, W. G. A number of Oakland names appear in the guest list for the elaborate dinner given last night by Lieutenant and Mrs. Emory Winship. ## The General Demand of the Well-Informed of the World has always been for a simple, pleasant and efficient liquid laxative remedy of known value; a laxative which physicians could sanction for family use because its component parts are known to them to be wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, acceptable to the system and gentle, yet prompt, in action.

In supplying that demand with its excellent combination of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, the California Fig Syrup Co. proceeds along ethical lines and relies on the merits of the laxative for its remarkable success.

That is one of many reasons why Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is given the preference by the Well-Informed. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine—manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Price fifty cents per bottle.

The girl disappeared several days ago, and her step-father is inclined to believe that she is stopping somewhere in West Oakland.

Deputy Sheriffs are conducting a search in the vicinity of Fruitvale, describing the missing girl as 5 feet 2 inches in height with blue eyes and brown hair. She wore a red dress, a light coat and a white lace hat with a pink bow.

MILLIONS HAVE BEEN GIVEN AWAY BY GREAT NEWSPAPERS OF WORLD

VOTING CONTESTS NATIVE TO U. S. A.

History Shows That Tribune's Offer Is a Topnotcher.

$100 CASH PRIZE.
AN EXTRA PRIZE OF $100 IN GOLD WILL BE AWARDED TO THE CANDIDATE WHO WITH THE AID OF FRIENDS BRINGS IN THE LARGEST AMOUNT OF PAID-UP ADVANCE SUBSCRIPTIONS FROM FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, TO SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2.
ALL SUBSCRIPTIONS PAID IN ADVANCE DURING THIS PERIOD, WHETHER BY CANDIDATES OR THEIR FRIENDS, WILL BE CREDITED IN FAVOR OF A CANDIDATE AS REQUESTED.
THE VOTES ISSUED ON THESE SUBSCRIPTIONS CAN BE VOTED AT ANY TIME, OR HELD AND VOTED ON THE LAST NIGHT OF THE CONTEST IF DESIRED.
AT NO TIME DURING THE CONTEST WILL ANY MORE DOUBLE VOTES BE ISSUED OR WILL ANY SPECIAL VOTE OFFER BE MADE.
THIS IS AN EXCELLENT CHANCE TO GET $100 IN EASY MONEY.

"Frank S. Adams, Contest Manager, OAKLAND TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—Will you settle a dispute by stating whether the contest for prizes on the basis of popularity, now being carried on by THE TRIBUNE, is the most important in the matter of the value of the prizes offered, that has ever been instituted by a newspaper? I contend that it is. A friend insists that some foreign publications have given prizes of larger aggregate value."
A VOTER.

"Voter" is not altogether right. Larger sums have been disbursed by foreign publications than not upon the basis of a ballot for popularity. The $100,000 prize to be distributed under the terms of THE TRIBUNE contest is probably the largest sum ever devoted to such a purpose under such conditions. The foreign contests have, in nearly all cases, had something in the nature of a lottery as the basis of award. The interest in THE TRIBUNE contest is so very general in the west that there has been much speculation as to what has been done by great newspapers in contests of this sort and the assumption is very general that THE TRIBUNE contest is the most notable, from a money point of view, that has taken place.

This is true when the conditions of the contest are considered. In the territory covered and the diversity and number of prizes and in the value of the principal prize THE TRIBUNE stands well at the top of the list among the great newspapers of the world in contests of this sort. On two occasions American newspapers have carried on contests based upon a ballot where the value of the prizes in the aggregate exceeded the amount of $100,000. But it is a fact that it is only in the United States that such a contest based upon a ballot, would be possible.

ORIGINATED IN FRANCE.
The old idea of a newspaper contest—after the French in its origin—was based upon the lottery. It was as different from THE TRIBUNE contest as anything could well be, but it was in accord with the spirit of the times. It came into vogue in France under the first Napoleon. With a view to giving the people something to think about—besides the government, Napoleon instituted a lottery. JAMES SULLIVAN.

the expense of the many. The newspaper press of France—or of Paris, for there were few newspapers outside the capital—was not particularly respectable or stable. Napoleon had a way of suppressing the opposition that made newspaper editors unsafe. But the cheap press was numerous enough to attack government monopoly of the lottery and start some on their own account. These lotteries were all suppressed after the revolution of 1830, but the newspapers that came into power and prominence during and after the second empire revived them and drove the country mad on gambling.

Le Matin and Figaro have, in comparatively recent years, conducted prize contests which had something of the element of the lottery in them and in which great sums in cash were involved. Le Matin has, on several occasions, given away a capital prize of 100,000 francs—approximately $40,000—and many smaller prizes.

POPULAR IN ENGLAND.

In England the newspaper contest was made legitimate and became tremendously popular through the methods of F. H. Harmsworth—how Lord Northrop—the most successful of modern English publishers owning a score of newspapers, to say nothing of his magazines, and the man who introduced American methods into the English newspaper world. Harmsworth galvanized the British public into life and stimulated an interest in his publications by giving away all manner of things as rewards for prize winners. He gave away houses and his cash, boats—everything that money could buy. But all of his enterprises were based upon something else than the ballot. He made his greatest hit and gave away the most valuable prizes in "massing the word" contests. On more than one occasion there has been above a hundred thousand dollars involved in a Harmsworth contest. The most popular of his latest exploits was a voting contest for the most beautiful woman in England, but the element of personal gain as a possibility being wiped out, the British public did not vote early or often. The beauty contest was the rage in England or a couple of years, though.

THE CONTEST ORGANIZATION.

The public seeing only the surface of the contest, has but a vague idea of the elaborate machinery necessary to the carrying on of a contest of this sort. The original investment on the part of THE TRIBUNE is but an incident to the entire cost. A special department of the paper was organized for the purpose of carrying on the details of checking the votes and to supply information to the public. The correspondence incident to the work is in itself enormous. As the interest in the contest increases the contest department is developed from day to day and during the last week of the contest when interest reaches fever heat all the complex machinery that is used in collecting election returns is put into motion and the counting and classifying of millions of ballots will become an under taking that would be impossible without the most complete organization. MOST SUCCESSFUL IN THE WEST.

In no part of this country are the people on the same terms of friendly interest as in the west and for this reason THE TRIBUNE contest is infinitely more interesting than contests of like character in the east. Here every man and woman with public spirit and the sort of energy that counts in the returns, is something of an unconscious politician, or has friends with political genius. Practically all of THE TRIBUNE contestants have been brought into the contest through the enthusiasm of their friends. But the spirit of ambition—a disposition not to be beaten—keeps them going and makes success a matter of personal pride. The winners of the principal prizes in this contest will have demonstrated the possession of elements of personal popularity that would carry them to almost any extent if they were running for office. This is the more marked in the case of the smaller towns where the friends and contestants who are getting into the contest have no hope of future reward—except in the knowledge that they have done their best for a friend.

The friendly rivalry that has been inspired already has taken hold on communities as well as on individuals. New returns, for instance, show that some of the smaller towns are getting into the game for their candidates and are likely to astonish some very much larger communities by the size of the vote they will cast. The contest shows on the face of it that none of the leaders in the various classes are sitting easy. New candidates are coming out every day and the candidates who have not ranked high in the returns made so far are turning in with inviolate faith to the contest in all the classes and communities. The contestant who is far from the top in the returns today is likely to be tomorrow with a bunch of votes that will change the face of the returns tremendously. Local pride is being staked and the short candidate of yesterday may be the favorite the day after tomorrow. In every class of the contest and in every element of uncertainty that makes for the interest of the contest and THE TRIBUNE ballot has all the elements of an election in many communities.

Practically every reader of THE TRIBUNE has some friend entered as a candidate in some of the classes and in every body's while to read the terms of the contests and the manner of voting as indicated on this page.

COUPONS IN PACKAGES.

The vote coupons must be tied in packages or placed in envelopes. It is impossible to count thousands of coupons dropped loosely in the box.

MANNER OF VOTING.

A coupon good for one vote will be published in each issue of THE TRIBUNE. The coupon of the contest, if clipped and sent to the Contest Manager of THE TRIBUNE, will count as one vote for the candidate named thereon. There is another and better way of securing votes and that is on subscriptions. Votes will be given on all paid-in-advance subscriptions as follows:

Three months, $1.50 ..... 100 extra votes
Six months, $3.00 ..... 200 extra votes
One year, $6.00 ..... 400 extra votes
Three years, $18.00 ..... 1200 extra votes
Three years, $24.00 ..... 1600 extra votes

Three hundred votes are also issued on a classified advertisement coupon book which contains coupons worth $2.00, but sells for only $2.

CLASSIFIED AD COUPONS.

An innovation in voting contests is the issuing of votes on classified advertisements. A coupon book containing coupons to the value of $2.50 is sold for $2. This is a saving of 50 cents on each dollar, and will prove a great incentive for one who has classified advertisements. Classified advertisements are such as "Help Wanted," "For Sale," "Rooms in Rent," etc. These classified advertisements can be used at the time the books are bought or at a later date as may be desired.

CLAIMS HE IS ROBBED OF $1424 COIN AND JEWELS

Claiming that he was robbed of a purse containing money and jewelry valued at $1424.55, while standing at the cigar stand of J. Laughlin, 2667 Sixteenth street, H. W. Copp sought out a policeman yesterday afternoon and excitedly demanded that the officer get back his valuables for him.

Copp says the valuable are as follows: One Southern Pacific pay check for $101.42; one for $101.42; one for $111.33; one for $114.24, and one for $156.63; fifteen loose diamonds from one-quarter to three-quarters weight; one hundred and fifty dollars; nine rubies; $60; one gold earring; $20; one greenback; $20; Total, $1424.55.

SEVERAL MEN.

Copp, who lives at 518 Fell street, told the police that he entered the cigar store, at which several men were standing, and requested that the proprietor change a $20 bill for him. The latter was suspicious, however, and refused to give him the cash. This angered Copp and he produced a $20 gold piece which the cigar man agreed to change. He says that as he turned to leave the place, he reached for his purse to put the bill back into it, and found that it had been stolen.

He rapidly questioned the man at the cigar store and they claimed not to have seen it, so he reported his loss to a policeman and detectives were later detailed on the case.

CANDIDATES ARE MAKING CLAIMS TO MANY VOTES

Taylorites Are Trying Hard to Break Into the Forces of the Union Labor Candidate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The busy season of campaigning everything in sight and a great deal that isn't in sight has arrived in the political situation. The Laborites are insisting upon two main propositions, both of which appear to be necessary to their success at the polls. They are making the extraordinary claim that the registered vote of the city shows a Laborite plurality which is almost a majority of the votes that will be cast on election day.

On top of his assertion and as a fortification of his consequences the McCarthyites are emphatic in their declarations that the Union Labor vote will be practically unanimous for the nominees of the Labor party. If these two positions were justified by the facts there would be no further need to prognosticate the result of the election, McCarthy and his associates would be swept to a splendid victory.

HARD TO TELL.

It happens, however, that neither position is at this time capable of a demonstration. Neither McCarthy nor anyone else is able to tell what part of the total vote now registered is Union Labor, Democratic, Republican or scattering. An erroneous impression has gained currency that the new regulation, by which a voter must confess his politics, has made it a matter of simply a little calculation to determine just how the election will go.

Nothing, however, could be further from the truth. Only in the new registration has it been necessary for a voter to tell to which of the parties he pins his political faith. The great mass of voters, those that were registered before the new law went into effect are unknown as far as their party likes and dislikes are concerned. The assertion, therefore, that the Laborites have so many thousands of votes is purely and simply a matter of guess work. One man's opinion is as good as the other fellow's, as both probably are wrong.

The Democratic machine and the Good Government League declare that dissatisfaction is existing and they are doing everything in their power to widen the breach. When it comes to win many labor votes to their standard it will be to their distinct advantage to divide the labor vote between McCarthy and Ryan.

TAYLORITES' CLAIM.
The Taylorites have no more justification for boasting than have the followers of McCarthy, but they are claiming a triumph that will sweep every man on their ticket, from the highest to the lowest, to victory. The only basis for this extravagant claim is the petition of approximately 20,000 signatures which placed Taylor in the field as an independent.

As it is traditional that anybody will sign a petition for anything the justice of abouting success on so slender a ground is not altogether clear. Taylor will certainly receive many Republican votes, but he will need them. The Democracy as an organization is hardly worth consideration and the independents as a rule are not good missionaries in the political field. When the inevitable show-down comes it develops that each independent comes or contributes only one vote, if he took the trouble to do that.

Downward business men are informing their employees that Taylor is the man to be voted or next month. Arguments of good government, financial reasons and anti-graft are being circulated and the man who receives their salaries from the merchants have received their directions regarding nominees. There is a suspicion that this is not good politics for Taylor at least. The fellow who is commanded to take a certain course at an election is generally likely to travel in the opposite direction unless the command coincides with his own views.

IN RYAN CAMP.

In the Ryan camp the general disposition appears to be to wait for something to turn up. Ryan is living on the border hope that either Taylor or McCarthy or both will make enough mistakes to carry him on to victory. The young statesman has practically only one competent man among his advisors and one man isn't enough. This is George D. Clark, chairman of the campaign committee. Clark is bristling with suggestions, but the ways and means of carrying them into operation are missing. It is absolutely certain that thus far there is no tainted gold in the campaign of Dan Ryan.

An impression is crystallizing into shape that the grand jury is likely to do something spectacular before it retires from public view on November 9. A batch of new indictments might affect election returns, but there is nothing definite yet to suggest that it will be forthcoming. The opponents of the Taylor administration, however, are fearful of such a play at this stage of the political game and some of the political manipulators of the graft prosecution are not above attempting such a ruse. It is to be hoped, however, that no plot to kidnap the estimable district attorney will be laid bare.

VERY GOOD IF YOU NEED IT

Authority Says This Home-Made, Helpful Mixture Should Be Used Promptly.

A well known authority states that Backache and pains in the loins are only too often the danger signals which notify the patient that something is wrong with the kidneys, and warns every one to be careful, particularly at this period of the year, when the skin pores are closing, forcing the kidneys to do double their work of filtering the impurities and poisons from the blood and system.

At the first sign of Backache or pain in the region of the kidneys, or weak and watery urine, the following simple home recipe should be used. Any one can easily prepare it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kargon, one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Any good prescription pharmacy will supply these three ingredients at small cost, which can easily be mixed by shaking well in a bottle. Few people seem to know the value of these common remedies in the treatment of the kidneys. This simple prescription, when taken as directed, will regulate the urine, clear up and remove sediment, overcome back pains and cleanse the entire kidney structure, correcting bladder troubles in just a little while.

ALLEGED BELL BOY THIEF IS CAPTURED

Detective Hodgkins will leave this evening for Du Bois, Iowa, to bring back Warren Gelbreath, alias Harry Evans, formerly a bell boy at the Crellin Hotel in this city, who is wanted here on a charge of robbing J. B. Rouike, a guest at the hotel, of more than $1000 worth of jewelry about two months ago. Chief of Police Wilson issued his third set of circular advertising for Evans only two days ago. Chief Wilson was notified that Evans was at the home of his mother in Du Bois and sent a picture and description to Chief Roney, and Evans' arrest followed.

Among the valuables taken from Rouike was a diamond-encrusted pin, worth $50. The police claim that this is not the first time Evans has been guilty of this kind of work, as he is an ex-convict, having been convicted of hotel larceny and sentenced to a term in jail. He had been employed in the hotel about three weeks when the theft took place. His real name is Warren Gelbreath. The police all over the country were given a description of him and the fact of his having relatives in Du Bois was learned through mail addressed to him from that town in care of the Hotel Crellin.

TRICKED BY BUNGO MEN

Stranger Gets Hard Earned Roll From Unsuspecting Victim at Sausalito.

(SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.)
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Tricked by two clever bunco men by an old scheme, Charles Jensen, who lives at 24 Pennsylvania avenue, parted with $200 of his hard earned money at Sausalito Tuesday and now he asks the police to aid him in capturing them.
It was 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday that Jensen met an affable stranger at the corner of Post and Market streets. The two chatted together for some little time and at length the stranger suggested that they visit the racing poolrooms at Sausalito. Jensen had no objections and when they reached the poolrooms the stranger began betting extravagantly and was winning constantly. The betting was done through the medium of a third man and Jensen was finally persuaded to try his hand at the game.

PLAYS EASY.
The two men represented to him that they had an absolute "good" and would not lose and advised that he bet his entire roll. Jensen demurred for a while, but finally consented. He bet $200 all the money he had in the hands of one of the men. After several moments the second man excused himself for a few minutes and that is the last Jensen saw of either of them.
He describes the man who took his money as about five feet four inches in height, about 35 years old, and wearing a blonde beard and moustache. The police think that the men are old hands at the game.

The next day the proprietor called in his wagon and told Mrs. Manoles she had been the victim of a thief who had heard her order given over the telephone.

Steady Increase Of Real Estate

Timely Editorial to Homeseekers of Oakland.

The following editorial appeared in the San Francisco Examiner of this morning: "Certainly in no other part of this country, and positively in no other part of the Pacific Coast, and most positively in no other part of California, has there been less land booming than in San Francisco, Oakland and vicinity."

Land values and land sales in the sections referred to have held steady and the operations have been in such responsible hands that the element of chance has been eliminated to such a degree that it may be said to be entirely absent.

"This is all as it should be and but emphasizes and endorses the advice of 'The Examiner' to its readers to buy land."

"In the matter of land values, the properties at present subdivided adjacent to San Francisco and Oakland are much cheaper than the land adjacent to cities of the same size. Furthermore, the transportation to the various sites is better than in similar sections adjoining large cities in other States. With the new lines, new railroads and cut-offs, our transportation system, will be much more improved."

"Consider all these things, read the various real estate announcements from time to time in 'The Examiner,' investigate these offerings and if they meet your views or necessities, invest, for the land that is close in, located on good transportation lines and improved will not depreciate."
"A few words of advice that will help: Buy on the lines of rapid transit; buy well located lots, buy as close in as possible, and BUY FOR A HOME. If not ready to build now, do so as soon as possible."

The weeping pugilist shook the tears from his face, hurried a cheery "good bye" to the judge and started back to practice.

GIRL WANTS TO BE SWITCHMAN

Startles Southern Pacific Superintendent When She Applies for Job.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—Helen Meyer, a pretty young woman of 22, Lyell street, wants to be a switchman. She applied for such a position yesterday at the office of E. P. Anthony, assistant superintendent of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

"I want a position as switchman for the Southern Pacific Company," she said to Anthony. And superintendent, clerks and office boys alike stared in mute surprise.

For the first time in the history of the railroad a woman was attempting to invade one of the few vocations belonging exclusively to men. She wanted to be a switchman, and she was waiting for a reply.

Anthony smiled. He started to speak, but only an inarticulate sound was the result. Then he found his voice.

"Why—why, you don't want that kind of a position, you—"

"Yes, please, I want to tend the Bern switch out beyond the Mission."

"Look here, young lady," he said. "You're all right. But you couldn't handle that switch. The work is too hard. I can turn a switch," the girl answered.

"But it's not cold there in winter, you know."

"There's a switchman's shelter right there. And I wouldn't be out more than two or three minutes at a time. O, please can't I have that job?"

C. E. Anthony studied the girl for a moment. Then he reached out and solemnly shook hands with her.

"My girl," he said, "I had the backbone about me that you have. I'd give you the job. I haven't. But the girls who have the nerve to go after a position of this kind will have some position, even if I have to create one for her."

EVERETT J. BROWN BREAKS MILK TRUST IN COUNTY

Members of the Association, Fearing Indictment, Decide to Abandon Their Organization.

The bad scare given the Alameda Dairyman's Association by District Attorney Everett J. Brown has totally disintegrated that organization, according to a statement issued from the District Attorney's office this morning.

Mr. Brown said:

The Alameda County Dairyman's Association met upon Tuesday evening, in the city of Oakland, to discuss the matter of the investigation of the Milk Trust by the District Attorney and the Grand Jury.

It was decided in said meeting that the association abandon all action that had been previously taken, looking toward a strike in the price of milk, by agreement. It was further decided that all of the dairymen in the city of Alameda, who had issued cards, raising the price of milk, would not make any attempt to collect for the milk under said raise of price, but would collect at the price charged before the sending out of the cards.

It was further decided that all preliminary steps that had been taken in Berkeley, looking toward an agreed raise in the price of milk, should be, at once, abandoned.

"The Milk Trust is broken, and from the information and assurance that I now have, I feel positive that the dealers of Alameda County are going to obey the provisions of the Cartwright law."

"I intend to keep up the investigation in regard to the sale of the milk to see that the law is obeyed. I intend not only to do this in regard to milk, but it is my purpose to pursue a thorough investigation into all branches of trade and to break up every trust in the county of Alameda that is in violation of the Cartwright law."

Although I have only commenced in the matter of this investigation, regarding trusts, I have been astounded to find evidences of unlawful combinations almost every branch of trade. The spirit and intent of the Cartwright law is being violated. In my opinion, on the whole, some few associations and combinations have voluntarily dissolved and abandoned their actions in this matter since the law has gone into effect, while a great many others have failed to do so, and I intend to take up one after another, until the law is generally obeyed. If it becomes necessary to proceed under the Cartwright law with criminal prosecutions to secure an obedience of the same, I shall do so."

MAGILL TAKES WITNESS STAND

Testifies to Finding Wife Dead and Smelling Chloroform.

DECATUR, Ill., Oct. 17.—The early part of today's session of the trial of Fred and Fay E. Graham, charged with having caused the death of Magill's first wife, Mrs. Pet. Gandy Magill, was occupied with the reading of the seven letters identified by Magill's daughter, Marguerite, when she was on the stand yesterday, as having been written by her deceased mother while the latter was propped up in bed previously to her death.

WRITES IN BED.

After the reading of the letters Magill himself was placed on the stand as the first witness of the day. Magill told of his first wife's despondency and said he wrote her up in bed with pillows writing letters. He told of the incident testified to yesterday by Marguerite, when a veterinarian was called to chloroform a horse, and said Mrs. Pet. Magill stated upon the occasion that she wished the chloroform was intended for her instead of the horse.

Magill said Postmaster Davidson of Clinton had told him that Mrs. Magill had told the postmaster that she was taking chloroform and that Davidson had told the witnesses that he said to her:

"You had better get a gun and kill yourself instead of taking chloroform."

Magill said that on the night Mrs. Magill died she had requested Marguerite to telephone to Fay E. Graham not to forget the promise whatever it was, that Fay had made to Mrs. Magill.

Just before he retired that night, the witness said, his wife requested him to get her a bottle of beer. He gave her a bottle from the ice chest and then retired.

In the morning when he awoke he saw that his wife was not in the room. He made a search of the house and found her in the spare room, lying down with a blanket wrapped tightly around her. He spoke to her, but got no reply, and upon examination he found that she was dead.

Magill said he detected the odor of chloroform.

MUSICAL THIEF TAKES GUITAR FROM TENT

A musical thief entered a tent at Eighth and Kirkham streets occupied by L. A. Brown, during the latter's absence last evening, and stole a valuable guitar.

Burglars entered the apartments of J. O. Ralph, at 235 Twelfth street, last night, and carried off two suits of clothes, two razors, and various articles of men's apparel.

ENGINE OVER; FIREMAN DEAD

Santa Fe Freight Train is Wrecked in Desert by Washout.

SAN BERNARDINO, Oct. 17.—While running at high speed early this morning a Santa Fe freight train dashed into a washout near Bengal, a station on the desert, and in the wreck which followed Fireman J. H. Potter was instantly killed in his cab seat.

The engine overturned and several freight cars were smashed to pieces on top of it.

Engineer E. O. Wilbur crawled out of the mass of debris uninjured. One of the frequent cloudbursts on the desert filled a gully with a raging river, which washed out the track, but in such a way that the trainmen could not see the break until upon it, and the next minute the engine had overturned.

West bound and east bound trains will be delayed six hours.

"THE SQUA WMAN" TO BE PLAYED TONIGHT

With the arrival of "The Squa Man" at the Macdonough Theater tonight and the balance of the week, Messrs. Liebler & Company, the managers of the enterprise, will exhibit to the patrons of the theater in this city just what they can do in the line of an artistic production of strength and value when they deliberately give their minds to it. The little rule, in the hands of William Fairbanks, is in the hands of a man whose line of work and is portraying an Englishman in Wyoming with what are said to be altogether satisfactory results.

Strong overture has been made to Olga Nethersole, the noted English artist, to play in the several important towns of the Republic of Mexico, and she has almost decided to accept of the offer. In addition to playing in the City of Mexico and Guadalajara, at the latter place to open the magnificent new playhouse at Chihuahua, the capital of the Mexican State of the same name, which is said to be the most beautiful theater in Mexico. This theater is being arranged to follow Miss Nethersole's Chicago engagement next Easter week. The great English artist will play her return engagement at Oakland, beginning Monday evening, and the following repertoire: Monday evening and Wednesday matinee, "The Awakening"; Tuesday evening, "Carmen"; Wednesday evening, "Sapho."

NEW FOUND FRIEND GONE WITH WATCH

Michael Hayes, of 1624 Twenty-fifth avenue, has learned, through the loss of his $120 watch, that friends acquired during a spasm of accepting to prove false. Hayes, for reasons which he did not disclose to the police, was celebrating last night. In the course of his peregrinations he met the omnipresent affable stranger, whom he immediately welcomed as a bosom companion. After visiting the principal places of interest in the white and red light districts, the twain repaired to the restaurant of Milan & Dan at 455 Ninth street. Hayes took advantage of a delay in serving the viands which he had offered to snatch a little sleep. During his slumbers, his "friend" improved the opportunity to do some profitable "snatching" himself, and disappeared. When Hayes awoke, he tried to find out the time, and the surprising discovery of his loss brought him and his sad tale to police headquarters, where he found interest if not sympathy in his troubles.

THINK "BELLRINGER" SENT TO PENITENTIARY

The police believe that the "Afternoon Bell Ringer" who was pilaging the downtown districts of this city a few weeks ago is now in custody in the person of Louis Wolf, who was in the city prison last night on his way to San Quentin from Vallejo, where he pleaded guilty this week to two charges of burglary. Captain of Detectives Petersen says he has conclusive evidence that Wolf is the man who burglarized the office of A. W. Foshay, at 1065 Washington street, on the afternoon of October 5th and is convinced that he also committed the numerous other daylight burglaries reported at that time. When Wolf was arrested by Chief of Police Stanford of Vallejo, he had $300 worth of jewelry in his possession, and the police expect to be able to identify a large portion of it as property stolen in this city.

HE EXPERIENCED A CHANGE OF HEART.

Rev. Arthur R. Vosburgh, C. S. B., of Rochester, New York, was educated for the Presbyterian ministry and graduated at Auburn Theological Seminary in 1892. He was licensed to preach by Lyons Presbytery in 1891, and called to become the pastor of the Presbyterian Church at North Bergen, Genesee Presbytery, in 1892. But he had experienced the healing efficacy of Christian Science, and had been a student of its teachings for some time, so he finally decided to devote his time wholly to active work in the movement. He became a practitioner in Rochester, was First Reader in Second Church of Christ, Scientist, there, and in 1899 became a member of the Board of Lectureship.

OBJECTION TO DUPLICATE COST

MAYOR F. FERRIER.

Mayor Ferrier of Berkeley Tells Why He Favors Consolidation of Cities.

BERKELEY, Oct. 17.—Much interest has been created here by the speech Mayor Ferrier made at the Chamber of Commerce banquet Tuesday night by Mayor Francis F. Ferrier. Mayor Ferrier declared himself in favor of consolidation into one great city, his chief objection to the present political division being the expenditure of tax money for duplicate cost of government.

Mayor Ferrier's remarks on this subject were as follows:

"It is a significant fact, which is becoming more and more realized by the fiscal side of the bay, geographically, constitutes a large city and the facilities for manufacturing and shipping, combined with the desirable residence locations, seem to make it inevitable that in time there will be here one great city in name, and one in fact. The expenditure of tax money for duplicate cost of government and applying money for city purposes instead of for building distant county bridges, acting as one large powerful unit toward securing national and State recognition in the interest of all its citizens."

Delmas Reiterates He Is Not in Thaw Case

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Delphi Delmas of counsel for Harry K. Thaw in his trial for the murder of Stanford White, is back in New York to resume the practicing of his profession here. Those familiar with the preparation of the case for the trial last winter believe that the story told by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw on the stand will not be told in the second trial.

LAWYERS IN LIVELY TILT

Attorneys Decoto and Walsh Engage in Repartee Before Judge Smith.

Proceedings in Police Court Number One were enlivened this morning by a spirited passage at words between Prosecutors Attorney Ezra Decoto and Attorney Philip Walsh concerning a request made by the latter for a further continuance in the case of Charles Williams, charged with a heinous crime. Williams was arrested two weeks ago and arraigned on a complaint which was afterward found to be faulty. When he first appeared in court he was represented by Walsh, who withdrew shortly afterward. On Monday he was arraigned again before Judge Tappan on the new complaint and asked for a continuance on the ground that he had no attorney. Judge Tappan granted the request but admonished the accused man to be prepared for trial today, as he was seriously opposed to long continuances in cases of this character. This morning Attorney Walsh asked to have the matter go over for two weeks longer on the ground that he had been retained on the case only last night and was not prepared to proceed today. He said furthermore that he would be unable to attend to the case during the next two weeks, in view of a murder trial in the Superior Court.

SHARP TILT.

"Your honor," said the Prosecuting Attorney, "I object to any further continuance in this matter. I believe that Mr. Walsh took this case, knowing that the court has objected to postponing the hearing again. In view of this knowledge it seems to me that he should have refused to take the case if he was not prepared to go ahead with it."

Walsh was on his feet in a minute. "Your honor," he retorted, "I am not one of those fortunate attorneys who is drawing a comfortable salary from the city in addition to a lucrative practice, and I cannot afford to refuse a case when it is offered to me. I ask that the matter go over for two weeks."

"There are outside reasons for making this request," answered Decoto, warmly. "I might tell several things that would throw light on this matter, your honor."

NO INSINUATIONS.

"If you mean to insinuate anything in regard to my connection with the case," responded Walsh, "you are at liberty to make any statement you please."

"I mean to insinuate nothing," said Decoto, "but I have been approached several times by outsiders who are trying to have this matter continued indefinitely and I do not propose to countenance any such conduct."

Judge Smith ended the discussion by setting the date of the hearing for Saturday, October 26. He instructed Attorney Walsh that no further continuance will be granted.

Single Ear of Corn Sold for Sum of $250

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Two hundred and fifty dollars was the world's record price, paid last night for a single ear of corn. A bushel at that rate would have sold for $15,000. The ear, a "Boone County White," was sold to the highest bidder in an exciting auction at the National Corn Exposition in the Coliseum.

The purchaser was the man who grew it, L. B. Clore, a farmer from Franklin, Indiana, who has captured $7500 in prizes at the show.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC MADE NO SECRET OF STATE RATES Full Statement of Railroads Case Made by Peter F. Dunne Regarding Interstate Commerce Investigation.

The following statement is made by Peter F. Dunne, general attorney of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company:
 "I understand, generally, that the purpose of the hearing just concluded was to inquire into rates on California State
 business as made by the Southern Pacific Company with a view to determining whether any concessions or refunds were paid in order to influence interstate business.

"When the hearing opened I suggested to Commissioner Lane that the records of the Southern Pacific Company as to the State business were not a subject of inquiry, since not within the provisions of the Interstate Commerce law. The commissioner replied that the purpose in examining the State list was to determine whether they had been made the medium
 through which concessions were extended to interstate shippers for the purpose of controlling interstate traffic.
 It did appear that in some instances, explained by the witnesses as being without any intent to depart from the law,
 a few shipments had moved from or to a point in Nevada to or from California points. But this Nevada point was, I believe, about four miles across the California line, and it was a lumber point of a California industry which had several other points of production and manufacture in the region, all California, and with those points Verdi, being just across the line, would naturally be grouped. The substantial inquiry, therefore, as I understand it, was whether the California
 State rates were subject to certain concessions in order that interstate business might be controlled.

FULL ACCESS TO PAPERS.
 "I suggested to Commissioner Lane
 that all of the books and papers of the Southern Pacific Company had been accessible to the commission and to its inspectors, and that the commission
 through its inspectors had enjoyed full access to these documents, had examined them, and was in full possession of their contents, and that it was therefore unnecessary in a public inquiry to disclose further the business transactions
 of the company. The commissioner replied that while the commission was in possession of the documentary evidence,
 the fairer way of proceeding was by
 public examination in which all parties
 interested would be given an opportunity to make any desired explanation
 concerning the transactions.

"Speaking generally, and so far as the California rates were explained at all, it was proved that any concessions from the rates as they had been originally printed
 were made because of local conditions
 and to meet local competition. For instance, as shown by the testimony of Mr.
 Baker, of Baker & Hamilton, the rates
 on agricultural implements and hardware
 manufactured at Benicia and shipped to San Francisco were reduced from the printed schedule in order to take business
 as against water competition and put it on the rails. Until the reduction in rate was made Baker & Hamilton were operating water craft between Benicia and San Francisco. It also appeared that refunds had been made to the W. & J.
 Sloane Company and to Studebaker
 Brothers on shipments originating at Port Costa and destined to San Francisco. If such reductions in the printed rates had not been made, those shippers
 would have used water transportation to San Francisco. In the same way, reduction on rates to Stockton from interior
 State points were made in order to meet water competition. The same course was pursued in reference to shippers of oil
 and lumber to points of consignment
 within the State.

ICE COMPANY RATES.
 "The rates to the Union Ice Company
 were made in order to meet local competition. The same thing was illustrated
 by reduced rates made to packing houses
 on rail hauls of eight or ten miles in order to meet water competition. The result of the proof was that the refunds
 from the State rates as printed were made because of local conditions to meet
 local competition and without reference to interstate business. Indeed only one witness testified that he was 'prejudiced'
 to give an interstate haul on wool because of a refund on a State rate, but on further examination the same witness admitted that local rate was compelled by local water competition.

"It was testified by the representative of the Illinois Glass Works that was made fund only the State rate on sand was made originally to meet the competition on sand from Belgium, and that subsequently a reduction in the State rate was made
 in order to meet competition by water from Marysville. It was also testified by Mr. Schwabacher of the Floriston Pulp & Paper Company that a rate was made to his company on oil for the purpose of meeting the competition of wood fuel,
 and that if such rate had not been made
 on oil he would have used wood from his own timber land and the transportation
 would have been lost to the railroad.

"The rate to the Associated Oil Company was shown by the testimony of Mr.
 Scribner to have been made as the result
 of local competitive conditions; and it was shown generally by the witnesses, and
 there was no substantial contradiction,
 that these refunds upon State rates, arising
 as they did out of the competitive
 conditions, were granted to all shippers
 under similar circumstances and conditions.

"If there was any attempt to show by the shippers themselves that the Southern Pacific Company was indulging in favoritism by a system of secret rates the attempt broke down.

"John G. Stubbs, assistant general freight agent, was also sworn as a witness, and to the extent that he had knowledge of the California rates he testified that they were made because of local conditions to meet local competition,
 and further, that these reduced rates on
 local shipments were granted to all shippers under the same circumstances and conditions.

"So far as the State rates are concerned, which had not been covered by the testimony of John G. Stubbs, the Southern Pacific Company offered testimony of its general freight agent, G. W. Luce, who was familiar with these rates, and
 by whom it was offered to be shown that those rates were made as the result of local competition within the State, water competition and otherwise, and that they were extended to all shippers under similar circumstances and conditions. It was not believed that there would or could be any objection to the testimony of Mr.
 Luce, inasmuch as the commissioner, as already noted, had professed this invariably with a statement that the fairer way of proceeding was to permit all parties concerned to make explanation, in the course of the inquiry, of anything contained in the documentary evidence which called for explanation. The commissioner declined to permit Mr. Luce to be sworn as a witness upon the ground that he might possibly gain immunity thereby

 in the event that criminal prosecutions
 should result as a consequence of the inquiry, but stated that if Mr. Luce desired to make a statement, not under oath as a witness, the commissioner would hear it.

MR. STUBBS SWORN.
 "It was then pointed out to the commissioner that John G. Stubbs had been sworn as a witness and had testified in part concerning the State rates, and that therefore it was only just that Mr. Luce,
 as to the remainder of those State rates
 which called for explanation, should, in like manner, be sworn as a witness, so that the Southern Pacific Company as well as the commission might have the benefit of that sworn testimony in the event that any adversary proceedings
 were contemplated, but the commissioner declined to permit Mr. Luce to make any explanation under oath as a sworn witness on this inquiry and proceeding. The result was that as to those rates concerning which Mr. Luce could make explanation the case was left in the air.

"It should be understood that the company made no secret of these State rates
 from the commission or any of its inspectors, and that the papers were on the files of the company with no attempt at their concealment, and the commission
 and the inspectors were given unrestricted access to them. It is true that the shipments on these rates were way-billed
 as original printed figures, and that the difference between the printed rates and
 the rates as reduced by local competition
 was paid by a refund voucher. But it was explained at the hearing that in many instances, notably in case of water
 competition, it was not desirable that the water competitor know the exact rate at which the railroad was carrying the freight, and for this reason the rate itself was worked out through a refund. It was this element of refund from the printed rate which had been caught at
 to make the present inquiry sensational."

Will it come
 to this

A few days ago a well-dressed young man, grossly intoxicated, was reeling
 along Van Ness avenue, announcing at intervals in a muddled voice "There's nuzzin' th' mazzie wiz me only I got
 too much money."

What more pitiable sight than a young man at the very
 threshold of life making of himself such a ridiculous spectacle; will it come to this in your case? Are you
 one of the unfortunate victims of the disease called im-temperance? Has this terrible disease already secured
 such a hold on you as to render you an object of ridicule and contempt, and powerless to help yourself? If so there is one way—and only one—by which you may be cured, pleasantly and permanently. Don't hesitate!
 Don't delay! Act at once! Full information will be sent by mail on request or we shall be pleased to have you call at our Sanitarium.

ARE YOU SUFFERING FROM ANY PRIVATE DISEASE?
Then Listen to Plain Facts

The race suffers from many ills, and to improve its economic and social conditions SOCIETY needs MEN STRONG, vigorous and courageous both PHYSICALLY and MENTALLY. And this is truly what Professor DAVID STARR JORDAN, president of STANFORD UNIVERSITY means—when he says that it would improve the race if a famine came every seven years and DESTROYED WEAK MEN.
 Take for example EVERY MAN who is a failure—unsuccessful—among us; whether he is a man who works in the shop and does not get a square deal and his employer unjustly takes advantage of his ignorance, or a
 so-called gentleman of leisure who thrives without giving to society anything useful of his efforts in return for what he receives or whether he is a SOCIAL SNUB or POLITICAL GRAFTER—you will invariably find THESE MEN—subjects of circumstances—WEAK in MIND and BODY and usually both—commonly termed—human degenerates.

TAKE WARNING! and BE JUST TO YOURSELF
 If you are afflicted with any disease peculiar to man FAKED PHOTOGRAPHS of non-existent men
 FREAK MUSEUMS or ELECTRICITY FAKIRS will not cure you and
 You will be an old weak man when you should be FULL OF VIGOR and PERFECT MANHOOD.
